QUESTIONS?

If you have questions concerning the Business Tax Compliance Specialist examination, please call the California State Board of Equalization, Examination and Recruitment Section at (916) 324-4807. You may also contact the California State Board of Equalization in writing at 450 N Street, MIC: 17, Sacramento, California, 95814.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Examination Security Information – After the completion of your examination, you may not discuss the contents of the examination including the questions, with anyone except the interview panel members, or the Examination and Recruitment Section. Examinations are competitive and the only way another individual may unfairly learn the contents of the examination material is from you. When you talk about the examination with other competitors, it could help them score higher and impact your score or placement on the eligible list. No personal items (i.e., notes, notepads, PDA's cell phones, purses, wallets, etc.) are allowed to be present at, or to be used during your examination. Failure to comply can result in your disqualification from the examination and may result in disciplinary action. Evidence of copying or collusion may result in the cancellation of the examination and the debarment of the competitor from future state civil service examination of any kind.

It is the candidate's responsibility to contact the Board of Equalization's Examination and Recruitment Section in Sacramento (916) 324-4807, CALNET 454-4807, three days prior to the written test date if he/she has not received his/her notice.

For an examination without a written feature it is the candidate's responsibility to contact the Board of Equalization's Examination and Recruitment Section in Sacramento (916) 324-4807, CALNET 454-4807 three weeks after the final filing date if he/she has not received a progress notice.

If a candidate's notice of oral interview, self-assessment report or performance test fails to reach him/her prior to the day of the interview due to a verified postal error, he/she will be rescheduled upon written request.

Applications are available at State Personnel Board offices, local offices of the Employment Development Department and the Department noted on the front. Applications may also be downloaded from the State Personnel Board web site at <http://www.spb.ca.gov>.

If you meet the requirements stated in this bulletin, you may take this examination, which is competitive. Possession of the entrance requirement does not assure a place on the eligible list. Your performance in the examination described in this bulletin will be compared with the performance of the others who take this test, and all candidates who pass will be ranked according to their scores.

The Board of Equalization reserves the right to revise the examination plan to better meet the needs of the service if the circumstances under which this examination was planned change. Such revision will be in accordance with civil service laws and rules and all competitors will be notified.

Examination Locations: When a written test is part of the examination, it will be given in such places in California as the number of candidates and conditions warrant. Ordinarily, interviews are scheduled in Sacramento, San Francisco, and Los Angeles. However, locations of interviews may be limited or extended as conditions warrant.

Eligible Lists: Eligible lists established by competitive examination, regardless of date, must be used in the following order: 1) sub-divisional promotional, 2) departmental promotional, 3) multi-departmental promotional, 4) service-wide promotional, 5) departmental open, 6) open. When there are two lists of the same kind, the older must be used first. Eligible lists will expire within one to four years unless otherwise stated on this bulletin.

Promotional Examinations Only: Competition is limited to employees who have a permanent civil service appointment. Under certain circumstances other employees may be allowed to compete under provisions of Rules 234, 235, and 235.2. State Personnel Board Rules 233, 234, 235, 235.2 and 237 contain provisions regarding civil service status and eligibility for promotional examinations. These rules may be reviewed at departmental personnel offices or at the Information Counter of State Personnel Board offices.

General Qualifications: Candidates must possess essential personal qualifications including integrity, initiative, dependability, good judgment, and ability to work cooperatively with others; and a state of health consistent with the ability to perform the assigned duties of the class. A medical examination may be required.

Hiring Interview Scope: If a hiring interview is conducted, in addition to the scope described in this bulletin, the panel may consider education, experience, personal development, personal traits, and fitness. In appraising experience, more weight will be given to the breadth and recency of pertinent experience and evidence of the candidate's ability to accept and fulfill increasing responsibilities than to the length of his/her experience. Evaluation of a candidate's personal development will include consideration of his/her recognition of his/her own training needs; his/her plans for self-development; and the progress he/she has made in his/her efforts toward self-development.

High School Equivalence: Equivalence to completion of the 12th grade may be demonstrated in any one of the following ways: 1) passing the General Educational Development (GED) Test; 2) completion of 12 semester units of college-level work; 3) certification from the State Department of Education, a local school board, or high school authorities that the candidate is considered to have education equivalent to graduation from high school; or 4) for clerical and accounting classes, substitution of business college work in place of high school on a year-for-year basis.
