Source: Legal Department

Existing Law:

Existing law permits the Board of Equalization (Board) to settle a tax dispute without recourse to litigation consistent with a reasonable evaluation of the costs and risks associated with litigation of the matter. This process is intended to avoid the costs and uncertainty of future litigation for both the state and the taxpayer and to accelerate resolution of disputed liabilities and collection of revenue. The Board's settlement program is available to taxpayers or fee payers who have a petition for redetermination, late protest, or claim for refund pending in connection with a tax or fee liability administered by the Board. Settlement proposals may be considered for civil tax or fee matters in dispute under the following tax and fee programs: Sales and Use Tax Law, Use Fuel Tax Law, Cigarette and Tobacco Products Tax Law, Alcoholic Beverage Tax Law, Energy Resources Surcharge Law, Emergency Telephone Users Surcharge Law, Hazardous Substances Tax Law (Childhood Lead Poisoning Prevention Fee and Occupational Lead Poisoning Prevention Fee), Integrated Waste Management Fee Law, Oil Spill Response, Prevention Fee and Administration Fee Law, Underground Storage Tank Maintenance Fee Law, Fee Collection Procedures Law (Tire Recycling Fee, Marine Invasive Species Fee, License and Administration Fee for Manufacturers and Importers, Covered Electronic Waste Recycling Fee) and Diesel Fuel Tax Law.

Under existing law, the Board's Executive Director or Chief Counsel, may recommend to the Board, itself, a settlement of any civil tax matter in dispute. Any such recommendation must first be submitted to the Attorney General, who must advise the Board within 30 days whether the proposed settlement is reasonable from an overall perspective. The members of the Board must then approve or deny the settlement recommendation within 45 days of the submission of the recommendation to the Board.

In smaller case settlements, the Board's Executive Director and Chief Counsel, jointly, can approve civil tax dispute settlements involving a reduction in sales and use tax and penalties of $5,000 or less without review by the Attorney General. When such small case settlements are approved, the Board members must be notified.

The settlement authority was originally authorized by Assembly Bill 3225 (Ch. 708, Stats. 1992) and was extended indefinitely by Assembly Bill 3308 (Ch. 138, Stats. 1994). With the enactment of Assembly Bill 2894 (Ch. 723, Stats. 2000) the Executive Director and Chief Counsel of the Board were provided with authority to jointly approve settlements involving a reduction in sales and use tax and penalties of $5,000 or less without Attorney General review. However, this measure did not grant similar joint approval authority for settlements involving special taxes and fees.

This proposal:

This proposal would allow the Board's Executive Director and Chief Counsel, jointly, to approve special taxes and fees settlements of $5,000 or less, consistent with the Sales and Use Tax Law.

The purpose of this proposal is to streamline the Board's settlement program for special tax and fee smaller cases. Smaller dollar cases tend to involve taxpayers with uncomplicated issues that should be handled on an expedited basis. If this proposal were to become law, staff could settle these smaller cases more quickly and efficiently. Taxpayers could have these cases resolved approximately 6 to 8 weeks sooner and revenue collection on these cases would be accelerated by 6 to 8 weeks. In addition, staff time currently devoted to preparing the detailed recommendations to be reviewed by the Attorney General on these smaller cases could be more productively spent in processing the more significant settlement cases.
