Mr. Howard Kato

Dear Mr. Kato:

Thank you again for your participation in the Board of Equalization’s (BOE’s) May 24, 2016, Taxpayers’ Bill of Rights Hearings held in Sacramento. You explained that you were unable to obtain a parent to child exclusion under Revenue and Taxation Code section 63.1 because your parents’ property was held in a corporation at the time of their death. You raised the question of whether the intent of section 63.1 (Proposition 58) is being ignored.

Based on research conducted by the BOE’s Legislation and Research Division, it appears that the Legislature did not intend to include legal entities such as family corporations in the provisions of section 63.1. Thus we believe the only remedy for your situation would be new legislation. To that end, I understand the BOE’s Legislative and Research Division is preparing a draft of suggested language for that legislation and plans to forward it to Mr. John Gamper of the California Farm Bureau to assist the Bureau with its attempt at a legislative solution.

Thank you again for sharing your ideas and concerns as part of the annual hearing process. If you have any further questions regarding this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me at 1-916-324-2798. You may also contact Mr. Mark Sutter of my office at 1-916-324-2797.

Sincerely,

Todd C. Gilman
Chief, Taxpayers’ Rights and
Equal Employment Opportunity Division
