Re: Kidwell/Baldares

Dear Mr. Saylin and Mr. Wishhart:

By stipulation of the parties through counsel, I was appointed to conduct a supplemental custody evaluation pursuant to Evidence Code Section 730 in the above-referenced matter. The evaluation commenced on February 21, 1997 and concluded on May 6, 1997 when I met with the parties to inform them of my findings, conclusions and recommendations. During that conference, I discussed the data from the evaluation which formed the basis for the conclusions and recommendations. I subsequently met with the parties on July 22, 1997 at which time Mrs. Baldares and Mr. Kidwell confirmed to me that they were in acceptance of the specific terms and provisions. Subsequently, as you will recall, I contacted each counsel to discuss my findings and recommendations as well as the general status of the case. At that time, I understand I was requested by counsel to provide the recommendations to which the parties had agreed so that counsel could use the information to draft a stipulation. Since, at this time, it appears that the case is not going to continue to hearing, this document will contain the basis recommendations rather than a comprehensive report for the purposes of litigation. If, however, at any time in the future, a litigation report is required or the Court requires my testimony to further support the conclusions and recommendations, I will provide either upon appropriate notice and prepayment.

As I understand, neither Mrs. Baldares nor Mr. Kidwell wish to incur any further expense in this matter unless it is absolutely necessary.

BRIEF HISTORY AND PRESENTING ISSUES

The parties are Robert Kidwell and Siboney Baldares. Mr. Kidwell is self-employed as a part-time gardener who resides in his deceased mother's residence in San Diego. Siboney Baldares is employed by a department store chain in Orange County as Security Manager. The child at issue is Donald, born September 21, 1991, pursuant to the current Order resides with father each Thursday at approximately 10:00 a.m. until Sunday at approximately 10:00 a.m.. The father picks up the child in Orange County to commence his residential schedule. Mother picks up the child in San Diego at the conclusion of father's residential schedule. I believe that the current schedule is, in part, a result of mother's employment schedule which requires her to work on most weekends. The additional factor has been the child's preschool age.

The primary precipitating change of circumstances in this matter has been that Donald has reached an age to enroll in an elementary school. Both parties wished to assume the designation as the primary custodial parent during the school period.

PROTOCOL

Pursuant to the Court's Order, the purpose and scope of my retention was to assess the matter as it related to the best interests of the child and render a recommendation regarding a feasible child-focused developmental-related custody plan. To that end, the following protocol was employed.

2/21/97	Siboney Balderas - individual interview
2/27/97	Robert Kidwell - individual interview
3/4/97	Siboney - psychological testing
3/4/97	Robert - psychological testing

PROTOCOL VARIABLES

The following variables and criteria were applied when assessing the family to develop the basis for an appropriate custody recommendation.

- * Level of child/parent attachment
- * Awareness of child's emotional response
- * Awareness of child's general development and personal and specific needs
- * Level of involvement of child's interests in education
- * Supportiveness of other parent's relationship with the child
- * Specific parent concern areas
- * Co-parent relationship capacity
- * General parental emotional and psychological capacity and behavioral functioning level

BRIEF SUMMARY

It was reported and confirmed that Donald is attached to and dependent upon both parents. ~~However, the primary dependency relationship appears to be with mother.~~ As I discussed with counsel, there were a number of factors and criteria that were considered in the formulation and basis for the recommendations. Among those was the issue of father's history of alcohol abuse. As counsel will recall, when conducting the initial evaluation, Dr. Mann addressed this matter and made recommendations regarding alcohol intervention, treatment and random alcohol screening. Subsequently, Mr. Kidwell entered into an alcohol treatment program from September 1994 through September 1995, the goal of which was to facilitate his abstinence. At the conclusion of the outpatient program, he was referred to AA for continuing support. During the process of the evaluation, Mr. Kidwell denied the use of alcohol and then stated that he had resumed drinking, but, in his opinion, his drinking habits did not present a risk.

Re: Kidwell/Balderas

8/23/97

As a result of conferring with Dr. Mann as well as other related mental health professionals and the parties, it was concluded that there is a degree of risk with father's present drinking pattern and the undersigned does not concur with Mr. Kidwell's self-assessment. Presently, however, there have been no confirmed incidences of Mr. Kidwell's drinking in the presence of the child.

CONCLUSIONS

Based upon the data considered in the evaluation, it was concluded that it would be in the best interests of the child to reside in primary residence with his mother during the school period and to commence elementary school in mother's community.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Based upon the data collected in the evaluation and the conclusions, the following recommendations were rendered to the parties and accepted by Ms. Baldares and Mr. Kidwell.

The following residential plan as it relates to father is contingent upon his abstinence from alcohol during any period that Donald is in his care. Random alcohol screens will be conducted. It should be noted that Dr. Mann recommended random alcohol screens and for a myriad of reasons the process was not utilized in the fashion that Dr. Mann expected and was not considered to be effective or successful. I believe that, in order to preserve the best interests of this child, the random alcohol screen is essential for at least a period of one year. The necessity after one year will be evaluated upon request of the parties. However, during at least the first 12-month period, father's custodial access to the child is contingent upon his response to requests for random alcohol screens which will be conducted by this office. Father has requested that Smith Kline Laboratories, which is located in geographical proximity to his residence, be utilized. I had an independent contact with the laboratory and my office was informed that it is necessary for father to respond as soon as possible within one to six hours of request. Father states that he does not wear a pager and is not always available. I have cautioned father that, if there appears to be any pattern of non-response to the request, then it will be considered to be the same as a positive alcohol screen and I will immediately recommend modification of the custody plan. I request that counsel determine the financial responsibility for payment of the drug screens and inform my office as to those terms.

SCHOOL RESIDENTIAL PERIOD

It was recommended that Donald reside with mother commencing with the 1997/1998 school year.

Mother's employment schedule requires she work most weekends. It was recommended that the child reside with father on weekends 1, 3, 4 and 5 at which time father's residential period will commence on Friday at 2:00 p.m. when he picks up the child from mother's residence. Mother will pick up the child from father's residence at 4:00 p.m. on Sunday. The second weekend of each month shall be designated to mother.

SUMMER PERIOD

The summer period will commence on the Friday that follows the dismissal of school at 2:00 p.m.. The summer period will conclude at 2:00 p.m. on the last Friday prior to the commencement of school. During the summer period, the child will reside for two consecutive weeks with father then one week with mother in an alternating fashion until the summer period concludes. Regardless of the pattern of summer residential schedule, the summer period will conclude on the final Friday preceding the commencement of the school year. The summer will commence with father's two-week period and alternate thereafter.

HOLIDAYS

All Court ordered holidays and special days will have priority over the regular schedule. The regular schedule will resume for the other parent on the next available scheduled time.

Thanksgiving: The Thanksgiving holiday will commence on Wednesday at the dismissal of school until the following Sunday at 4:00 p.m.. I would respectfully request counsel to determine the designation of the 1997 schedule with the parties. If Donald is designated to spend Thanksgiving in 1997 with his mother, then he will spend all succeeding Thanksgiving holidays in odd-numbered years with mother and all Thanksgiving holidays with father in even-numbered years.

Christmas: Since mother is in a retail business, her availability through the school Christmas vacation holidays is limited. Therefore, the following Christmas schedule has been recommended and accepted by the parties. Each year, Donald will remain with mother from the dismissal of school until 12:00 p.m. Christmas Eve at which time father will pick up the child. The child will remain with father for the balance of the Christmas school vacation period until 4:00 p.m. the night before school reconvenes at which time mother will pick up the child from father's residence or another mutually agreed upon location. The parties agree that, in the event that mother's employment allows some days off during this period, she will have additional access to the child up to and including half of the total school vacation period.

Easter/Spring Break: The Easter/Spring Break holiday will commence at the dismissal of school on the last day of school and will conclude on Sunday at 4:00 p.m. prior to the reconvening of school. This holiday will be observed in two periods. The first period will commence at the dismissal of school and will conclude on the following Wednesday at 2:00 p.m. at which time the second period will commence. The second period will commence when the second period parent picks up the child from the residence. The second period will conclude on Sunday at 4:00 p.m. prior to the day school reconvenes. In 1998 and all even-numbered years, Donald will be with father in the first period and mother in the second period. In 1997 and all odd-numbered years thereafter, Donald will be with mother during the first period and father during the second period.

Independence Day: The Fourth of July holiday will commence at 4:00 p.m. on July 3rd and will conclude by 12:00 p.m. on July 5th. In 1998 and all even-numbered years thereafter, the child will be with father and in 1999 and all odd-numbered years thereafter, child will be with mother.

Mother's Day/Father's Day: The child will be with mother for the entire Mother's Day weekend and father for the entire Father's Day weekend. The weekend will commence on Friday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. and conclude on Sunday at 4:00 p.m..

Monday Holidays: On all holidays celebrated on Monday, the child will remain with the parent with whom he has spent the previous weekend. The holiday will conclude on Monday at 4:00 p.m..

Re: Kidwell/Balderas

There are no provisions for any other legal or religious holidays or any other special days other than those specified above unless agreed to by the parents.

VACATIONS

During the summer period, each parent will have the opportunity to vacation with the child during their regularly scheduled residential period. The vacationing parent will provide the other parent with written notice which will include a basic itinerary and/or destination information.

MEDIATION

If, at any time in the future, the parents have any concerns or disputes which they are unable to resolve and they are at an impasse, or if either parent believes it would be of benefit to consult the offices of the undersigned or any other appropriately trained and mutually agreed upon mental health professional for the purpose of mediation to address and attempt to resolve the matter, then both parents will cooperative attend at least one consultation per concern and share the cost equally unless otherwise agreed to.

I believe this represents the terms and provisions which were recommended and accepted by the parties. If you have any questions or input, please do not hesitate to contact me. Thank you very much for the opportunity to assist you and your clients with this matter.

Sincerely,

Stephen D. Adam, Ph.D.

12. Having had a spiritual awakening as the result of these steps, we tried to carry this message to alcoholics, and to practice these principles in all our affairs.

Many of us exclaimed, "What an order! I can't go through with it." Do not be discouraged. No one among us has been able to maintain anything like perfect adherence to these principles. We are not saints. The point is, that we are willing to grow along spiritual lines. The principles we have set down are guides to progress. We claim spiritual progress rather than spiritual perfection.

Our description of the alcoholic, the chapter to the agnostic, and our personal adventures before and after make clear three pertinent ideas:

- (a) That we were alcoholic and could not manage our own lives.
- (b) That probably no human power could have relieved our alcoholism.
- (c) That God could and would if He were sought.

Being convinced, we were at Step Three, which is that we decided to turn our will and our life over to God as we understood Him. Just what do we mean by that, and just what do we do?

The first requirement is that we be convinced that any life run on self-will can hardly be a success. On that basis we are almost always in collision with something or somebody, even though our motives are good. Most people try to live by self-propulsion. Each person is like an actor who wants to run the whole show; is forever trying to arrange the lights, the ballet, the scenery and the rest of the players in his own way. If his arrangements would do as he wishes. Everybody, including himself, would be wonderful. The arrangements our actor may suggest may be kind, considerate, modest and self-sacrificing. He may be mean, egotist as with most humans, and have other traits.

What usually happens is that he begins to act very well. He begins to act right. He decides to act on the next occasion, so as the case may be. Admitting he may be that other people are angry, indignant, seething with trouble? Is he not trying to be kind? Is he trying to be kind? Is he trying to be kind? Can he wrest satisfaction from the world if he only manages to please the rest of the players? And do not wish to retaliate, snatched show? Is he not, even a producer of confusion rather than a producer of confusion?

Our actor is self-centered. He likes to call it nowadays a man who lolls in the complaining of the sacred. He who sighs over the sins of the technicians and reformers.

in the rocks. People feared for my sanity. So did I.
I could eat little or nothing when drinking, and I was fifty pounds under weight.

My brother-in-law is a physician, and through his kindness and that of my mother I was placed in a nationally-known hospital for the mental and physical rehabilitation of alcoholics. Under the so-called bella-doona treatment my brain cleared. Hydrotherapy and mild exercise helped much. Best of all, I met a kind doctor who explained that though certainly selfish and selfish, I had been seriously ill, bodily and mentally.

It relieved me somewhat to learn that in alcoholics the will is amazingly weakened when it comes to comparing liquor, though it often remains strong in other respects. My incredible behavior in the face of a desperate desire to stop was explained. Understanding myself now, I fared forth in high hope. For three or four months the goose hung high. I went to town regularly and even made a little money. Surely this was the answer—self-knowledge.

But it was not, for the frightful day came when I drank once more. The curve of my declining moral and bodily health fell off like a ski-jump. After a time I returned to the hospital. This was the finish, the curtain, it seemed to me. My weary and despairing wife was informed that it would all end with heart failure during delirium tremens, or I would develop a wet brain, perhaps within a year. She would soon have to give me over to the undertaker or the asylum.

They did not need to tell me. I knew, and almost welcomed the idea. It was a devastating blow to my craving for liquor, and this often requires a definite hospital procedure, before psychological measures can be of maximum benefit.

We believe, and so suggested a few years ago, that the action of alcohol on these chronic alcoholics is a manifestation of an allergy; that the phenomenon of craving is limited to this class and never occurs in the average temperate drinker. These allergic types can never safely use alcohol in any form at all; and once having formed the habit and found they cannot break it, once having lost their self-confidence, their reliance upon things human, their problems pile up on them and become astonishingly difficult to solve.

Frothy emotional appeal seldom suffices. The message which can interest and hold these alcoholic people must have depth and weight. In nearly all cases, their ideals must be grounded in a power greater than themselves, if they are to re-create their lives.

If any feel that as psychiatrists directing a hospital for alcoholics we appear somewhat sentimental, let them stand with us a while on the fring line, see the tragedies, the despairing wives, the little children; let the solving of these problems become a part of their daily work, and even of their sleeping moments, and the most cynical will not wonder that we have accepted and encouraged this movement. We feel, after many years of experience, that we have found nothing which has contributed more to the rehabilitation of these men than the altruistic movement now growing up among them.

Men and women drink essentially because they like the effect produced by alcohol. The sensation is so elusive that, while they admit it is injurious, they cannot after a time differentiate the true from the false. To them, their alcoholic life seems the only normal one. They are restless, irritable and discontented, unless they can again experience if the rest of the world would only behave; the outlaw safe cracker who thinks society has wronged him; and the alcoholic who has lost all and is locked up. Whatever our protestations, are not most of us concerned with ourselves, our resentments, or our self-pity?

Selfishness—self-centeredness! That, we think, is the root of our troubles. Driven by a hundred forms of fear, self-delusion, self-seeking, and self-pity, we step on the toes of our fellows and they retaliate. Sometimes they hurt us, seemingly without provocation, but we invariably find that at some time in the past we have made decisions based on self which later placed us in a position to be hurt.

So our troubles, we think, are basically of our own making. They arise out of ourselves, and the alcoholic is an extreme example of self-will run riot, though he usually doesn't think so. Above everything, we alcoholics must be rid of this selfishness. We must, or it kills us! God makes that possible. And there often seems no way of entirely getting rid of self without His aid. Many of us had moral and philosophical convictions galore, but we could not live up to them even though we would have liked to. Neither could we reduce our self-centeredness much by wishing or trying on our own power. We had to have God's help.

This is the how and why of it. First of all, we had to quit playing God. It didn't work. Next, we decided that hereafter in this drama of life, God was going to be our Director. He is the Principal; we are His agents. He is the Father, and we are His children. Most good ideas are simple, and this concept was the keystone of the new and triumphant arch through which we passed to freedom.

growth inherent in this group they may mark a new epoch in the annals of alcoholism. These men may well have a remedy for thousands of such situations.

You may rely absolutely on anything they say about themselves.

Very truly yours,

William D. Silkworth, M.D.

The physician who, at our request, gave us this letter, has been kind enough to enlarge upon his views in another statement which follows. In this statement he confirms what we who have suffered alcoholic torture must believe—that the body of the alcoholic is quite as abnormal as his mind. It did not satisfy us to be told that we could not control our drinking just because we were maladjusted to life, that we were in full flight from reality, or were outright mental defectives. These things were true to some extent, in fact, to a considerable extent with some of us. But we are sure that our bodies were sickened as well. In our belief, any picture of the alcoholic which leaves out this physical factor is incomplete.

The doctor's theory that we have an allergy to alcohol interests us. As laymen, our opinion as to its soundness may, of course, mean little. But as ex-problem drinkers, we can say that his explanation makes good sense. It explains many things for which we cannot otherwise account.

Though we work out our solution on the spiritual as well as an altruistic plane, we favor hospitalization for the alcoholic who is very jittery or befogged. More often than not, it is imperative that a man's brain be cleared before he is approached, as he has then a better chance of understanding and have to offer.

The doctor writes:

The subject presented in this book paramount importance to those at addiction.

I say this after many years' experience as Director of one of the oldest hospitals specializing in alcoholic and drug addiction.

There was, therefore, a sense of responsibility that I was asked to contribute a few words on this subject covered in such masterly detail in this book.

We doctors have realized for a long time that a knowledge of moral psychology was of urgent importance in the treatment of addiction but its application presented difficulties. What with our ultra-modern scientific approach to everything, we are perplexed to apply the powers of good that lie in our knowledge.

Many years ago one of the leading authors of this book came under our care in this hospital. He had acquired some ideas which he put into practice at once.

Later, he requested the privilege of telling his story to other patients here and we consented. The cases we have seen have been most interesting; in fact, many of them. The unselfishness of these men as well as their courage, the entire absence of profit motive, and their community spirit, is indeed inspiring and long and wearily in this alcoholic world. They help themselves, and still more in the past they help other alcoholics back from the gates of hell.

Of course an alcoholic ought to be fling, powerful! Without help it is too much for us. But there is One who has all power—that One is God. May you find Him now!

Half measures availed us nothing. We stood at the turning point. We asked His protection and care with complete abandon.

Here are the steps we took, which are suggested as a program of recovery:

1. We admitted we were powerless over alcohol—that our lives had become unmanageable.
2. Came to believe that a Power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity.
3. Made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood Him.
4. Made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves.
5. Admitted to God, to ourselves, and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs.
6. Were entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character.
7. Humbly asked Him to remove our shortcomings.
8. Made a list of all persons we had harmed, and became willing to make amends to them all.
9. Made direct amends to such people wherever possible, except when to do so would injure them or others.
10. Continued to take personal inventory and when we were wrong promptly admitted it.
11. Sought through prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God as we understood Him, praying only for knowledge of His will for us and the power to carry that out.
