2013 Taxpayers' Bill of Rights Hearings in Culver City on July 17

Sacramento — Individuals and businesses with ideas or concerns about the administration and oversight of California's business and property taxes are invited to attend the Board of Equalization's (BOE) annual Taxpayers' Bill of Rights hearings in Culver City on July 17, 2013.

"California taxpayers have an opportunity for face-to-face interactions with BOE members," said BOE Chairman Jerome E. Horton. "I look forward to hearing ideas and concerns from business and property owners on how we may improve our taxpayers' experiences."

In addition to safeguarding the rights, privacy, and property of taxpayers, Chairman Horton is interested in discussing ways to help taxpayers better understand California's tax laws.

The Taxpayers' Bill of Rights hearings begin at approximately 1:30 p.m. at the following location:

When: Wednesday, July 17, 2013

Where: Board of Equalization District Office
5901 Green Valley Circle, 2nd Floor
Culver City, California 90230

Taxpayers interested in making a presentation at either the Business Taxpayers' or the Property Taxpayers' Bill of Rights Hearings are invited to contact the BOE Taxpayers' Rights Advocate Office by calling toll-free 1- 888-324-2798, or by email at www.boe.ca.gov/info/emailtra.htm.

Enacted in January 1989, the Harris-Katz California Taxpayers' Bill of Rights requires the BOE to ensure that the rights of California taxpayers are protected during the assessment and collection of sales and use taxes. The Taxpayers' Bill of Rights was expanded in 1993 to include special tax programs such as excise, fuel, and alcohol taxes, and the Morgan Property Taxpayers' Bill of Rights was added in 1994. The Board is required by law to conduct public Bill of Rights hearings annually.
