BOE to Hold Employment Open House in San Francisco on November 21

Sacramento – The California State Board of Equalization (BOE) will hold a free BOE Employment Open House on Friday, November 21, 2014 at 10:30 a.m. to provide job seekers with information that will help them apply for positions at the BOE and other tax-related government departments and agencies.

"This recruiting event provides valuable information about career opportunities at the BOE," said BOE Member Betty Yee. "Learn more about resources available to help you find a career with the state."

The BOE employs well-qualified individuals in a variety of professional and technical positions including business taxes representatives, tax auditors, tax technicians, accountants, appraisers, programmers, and analysts. Attendees are encouraged to register by November 20, and bring resumes and unofficial transcripts.

Board Member Betty T. Yee was elected to the Board of Equalization in November 2006. Her district includes many of California's coastal counties, from Del Norte to Santa Barbara, and includes the entire San Francisco Bay Area. Ms. Yee previously served as Chief Deputy Director for Budget at the California Department of Finance. On November 4, 2014, Ms. Yee was elected California State Controller. Ms. Yee will assume her duties as State Controller on January 5, 2015. The State Controller serves as member of the California State Board of Equalization and serves as the chair of the California Franchise Tax Board.

The five-member California State Board of Equalization (BOE) is a publicly elected tax board. The BOE collects $56 billion annually in taxes and fees supporting state and local government services. It hears business tax appeals, acts as the appellate body for franchise and personal income tax appeals, and serves a significant role in the assessment and administration of property taxes. For more information on other taxes and fees in California, visit www.taxes.ca.gov.
