Electronic Waste Recycling Fee Will Apply to LCD and Plasma TVs Starting July 1, 2005

Since January 1, 2005, the electronic waste recycling fee has applied to the sale of certain video display devices in California. Starting July 1, 2005, you must also collect the fee when you sell

- LCD (liquid crystal display) televisions
- Plasma televisions

The fee applies when the television screen measures more than four inches diagonally.

These products fit the state's definition of common hazardous waste. The state Department of Toxic Substances Control made this decision in 2004.

For a full list of electronic devices covered by the fee (also known as "covered electronic devices"), see the Department of Toxic Substances Control website:

For fee rates, information on the electronic waste recycling fee, and general information on products covered by the fee, see our website: www.boe.ca.gov/sptaxprog/ewaste.htm. Or you may call us at 916-341-6906.
